Annie Lennox Plans 2011 AIDS Trip to Malawi

December 27, 2010

Annie Lennox will be traveling to Malawi in February 2011 to evaluate the country's HIV/AIDS programs, contactmusic.com reports. Lennox will be part of a larger group of officials from Scotland who will be looking at projects that were established by the Scottish parliament five years ago. Lennox is well known for her AIDS advocacy over the years and has served as a celebrity ambassador for HIV/AIDS at the United Nations.
