Buyers Clubs Near and Far

August 1, 1997

Buyers clubs offer important resources for obtaining treatments and information about them. Some specialize in experimental and imported drugs; others, in discount nutritional supplements; and yet others, in a mix of both. And in several cases, these offerings are accompanied by a range of treatment-related support services, including crucial advocacy for broader access (see "Not Dead Yet"). All offer a good place to meet other PWAs and swap stories that can help in making treatment decisions.
