Careers

September 1, 2001 By Shana Naomi Krochmal

Clinton-era political appointee castoffs have settled into new gigs: Ex-Czar Sandy Thurman started her own foundation, the International AIDS Trust.

Former CDC head Helene Gayle is at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation leading HIV prevention efforts in Botswana and India.

Once-HHS secretary Donna Shalala is president of the University of Miami.

As for Surgeon General David Satcher (above), his term's up in February. Don't be surprised if he's not asked to renew.
