HIV Camp Reschedules Summer Sessions Canceled After H1N1 Scare

September 18, 2009

One Heartland, a Milwaukee-based camp for children living with HIV/AIDS, will hold fall sessions for 88 campers whose July session in Minnesota was canceled after two volunteer staff members were diagnosed with the H1N1 virus (swine flu), the Chicago Tribune reports.

According to the article, the charity has raised enough funds to reschedule the sessions for October and November.
