ACT UP, Again

August 14, 2009 By Peter Staley

Great news -- ACT UP San Diego is reforming to fight California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger's HIV/AIDS budget cuts (he basically wiped out their entire HIV prevention program, along with other life-saving services like viral load testing for those on treatment).

Long live ACT UP!

(nice website, too -- click the graphic to see it)

© 2026 Smart + Strong All Rights Reserved.