HAPPY TURKEY DAY!!!

November 25, 2008 By David Capogna

Thanks for my friends in Palms Springs (whom I'm flying to see tomorrow,) and thanks for my loving family in upstate New York. Another Thanksgiving, and I'm STILL here, and I couldn't have make it here without you all. Love me some turkey with that L-tryptophan rush. My melatonin levels are already out of watch, so nobody will notice when I fall asleep in the middle of the day.

Try JibJab Sendables® eCards today!

I'm now obsessed with JibJab, and they videos for any occasion. You'll be "seeing" me in as many as possible...hee hee.

THANKS
