Synthetic Division HIV Benefit Show [VIDEO]

June 22, 2009 By Shawn Decker

I'm very excited to be playing another show with my synthpop duo-now-trio, Synthetic Division. Not only that, it's a benefit for the AIDS Walk Washington DC, which Gwenn and I will be walking in with Team Supersnack in October.

Above is a video I made to promote the July 11 show.

If you're on Facebook, the Event page is here.

The details are as follows:
Synthetic Division w/ Silent Muse
Venue: Outback Lodge in C'ville, VA
Doors at 8 pm, close at Midnight
$10

Positively Yours,
Shawn
