Los Angeles Times Endorses Repeal HIV Discrimination Act

June 21, 2013

In an editorial, the Los Angeles Times has endorsed the Repeal HIV Discrimination Act of 2013. Advocates assert the endorsement is a major step in raising public awareness about HIV criminalization. Introduced by U.S. Representatives Barbara Lee (D–Calif.) and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R–Fla.), the bill encourages state governments to repeal HIV-related criminal laws based on outdated medical information.
