MAC AIDS Fund, AIDS United Launch $4M Retention Initiative

February 12, 2013

The MAC AIDS Fund has partnered with AIDS United to launch the Retention in Care Initiative, according to an AIDS United statement. Seven grantees in the first cohort got $1 million in initial grants to define and expand programs nationwide to keep people with HIV in care and on treatment. The MAC AIDS Fund has made a commitment of $4 million in total for these grants. AIDS United administers the initiative.
