Oklahoma Man With HIV Faces 7 Felony Charges, $1M Bail

March 16, 2012

A 23-year-old Oklahoma man is facing seven felony charges for allegedly transmitting HIV to his wife and at least one other woman, NewsOn6.com reports. The charges against Chris Sylvie include assault and battery with a deadly weapon and having sex with a 14-year-old girl. Nicole Sylvie, his wife, claims he has known his HIV-positive status since 2005. She says she learned she was HIV positive last October, when tests showed she was also pregnant with his child. His bail is $1 million.
