Congrats to Wanda- The New T-Cell Champ!

February 28, 2014 By Shawn Decker

With a guess of 591, and my actual t-cell count coming in at 590, we have a new t-cell champion in Wanda Vawser! (That's her lovely dog, Oscar, joining in the celebration and helping to let Wanda know about the good news.)

Thanks to everyone who participated. My hat's off to the new champion. Wanda, you've been such a kind supporter of the HIV/AIDS work I do. It's my absolute pleasure to be sending the signed copy of Body Counts your way!

Positively Yours,
Shawn
