Favorite TV Show of 2010: Infomania

January 3, 2011 By Shawn Decker

I know a lot of people like The Soup and Tosh.0, but when I want someone standing in front of a green screen delivering the funnies, I want Infomania. In my humble opinion it is the best because of it's great cast of purveyors of wit and pop culture observations.

Here's a segment from their year-end show, in which host Conor Knighton revisits some incredible 2010 moments that will hopefully not be repeated in 2011.

Also check out Ben Hoffman's observation on why he feels the year 2010 sucked. I think Ben really shines on his kid's show, Kid's Kouch. If you are blessed with TiVo or DVR, do yourself a favor and add Infomania to your sacred list of watchables.

Hope your new year is off to a great start!
