GLBT History Month 2009

September 30, 2009 By Oriol R. Gutierrez Jr.

October is GLBT History Month. One gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender person, either living or deceased, is highlighted each day of the month.

This year there are three HIV-positive people being honored: Alvin Ailey Jr. (Oct. 1), Michel Foucault (Oct. 7) and Paul Monette (Oct. 18). Each will get a separate entry.

This year there are also many honorees who are well known to be HIV/AIDS advocates. They include k.d. lang (Oct. 15), Rachel Maddow (Oct. 16), Todd Oldham (Oct. 21), Esera Tuaolo (Oct. 28), Urvashi Vaid (Oct. 29) and B.D. Wong (Oct. 31).

Here's a video of this year's honorees:
