Meet Supersnack’s Mascot, Greta The Bunny

May 17, 2008 By Shawn Decker

Greta is the proud pet of Angela Hamilton and Zach, founders of Team Supersnack, the highest fundraising team in which every member has raised at least the minimum $25 donation.

Even Greta raked in some cash, $825! She really got over $2,000, but direct donations were eaten because she mistook the money for lettuce.. Online donations are the safest- at least where hungry bunnies are concerned. So if you want help Greta out, or hear why she is involved in the cause, then click on her picture.

Positively Yours,

Shawn
