29 Thoughts I Had When Telling My Partner About My HIV Status

We understand that disclosure can be an uncomfortable conversation. We wanted to share our experience with sharing statuses.

May 15, 2018 By David & Johnny

I met my partner, Johnny, back in 2013. We started our relationship off by speaking on the phone for hours on end. When we decided to meet in person for the first time, I knew I had to have “the conversation” with him.

Here are 29 thoughts that went through my head when telling my partner about my HIV status.
