Your Song

The December 2013 issue of POZ magazine is online.

Here's an excerpt from my editor's letter:

We spotlight HIV-positive unsung heroes--people making a difference, but who've not gotten the widespread recognition they deserve.

Although their contributions certainly merit the attention, we by no means present these 100 people as the only ones deserving recognition. They are stand-ins for all the unsung heroes in our HIV/AIDS community. Click here to read their stories ...

December 1 is World AIDS Day. To mark this annual awareness day, click here to read our Q&A with Dylan Mohan Gray, the director of Fire in the Blood, which warns advocates that the global fight for access to low- cost drugs isn’t over. Then click here to read about Florence Ngobeni-Allen of South Africa. Despite being HIV positive, she is the proud mother of two HIV-negative sons.
