We asked two executive directors from different- as-night-and-day AIDS orgs for their fave websites:

José Zuniga
International Association of Physicians in AIDS Care
www.iapac.org

United Nations Foundation
www.unfoundation.org
For the latest updates on international health care, human rights and economic issues related to HIV.

International AIDS Economic Network
www.iaen.org
Great for fact-based discussion about the health and human economics of AIDS care and drug provision.

CNN
www.cnn.com
Because I'm a news junkie.

Heather Edney-Meschery
Santa Cruz Needle Exchange
www.needleexchange.com

The UFO Study
www.fraize.org/ufostudy/
Everything you want to know about hepatitis and overdose but are afraid to ask. The graphics rock!

OPM
www.opmden.com
Hot, crazy, white boy band with a hip-hop reggae soul. They focus on overdose and HIV prevention through needle exhange.

Concussion Magazine
www.concussion.org
The hottest skate zine in the nation, with rad pix of grinding and bailing and reviews of all the other things that make life worth living.
