Greg Louganis Resurfaces as a Diving Coach

February 22, 2011

Greg Louganis has made a return to diving, accepting a coaching job with Southern California–based SoCal Divers, The New York Times reports. Louganis retired from diving in 1988 after winning consecutive Olympic gold medals in the platform and springboard events, which has yet to be equaled. Since his retirement, Louganis has spent time in various endeavors, such as acting and training dogs for agility competitions. He revealed in his 1995 autobiography that he was gay and HIV positive.
