New Hampshire School District Bans HIV/AIDS Group

January 7, 2011

An HIV/AIDS group in New Hampshire has been banned from its school district after distributing safer-sex kits to a local high school on World AIDS Day 2010, Manchester News reports. AIDS Services for the Monadnock Region gave kits containing condoms, flavored lubricant and candy to more than 70 students. The school board had approved the dispersal of the kits before knowing their contents.
