What's your fave part of online dating?
I express myself more. I don't have to worry about when to tell someone I'm positive—it's already in my profile.

Do you have any strategies for dating online?
I trust my instincts and take courtship in stages—talk online and on the phone, then meet in person.

What kind of profile catches your eye?
Everybody looks at the photo first—there's no excuse for not posting one. The face and lips are important, because I love kissing. If the profile is written well, it tells me he's good at communicating.
