READ

old-school activist Larry Kramer's The Tragedy of Today's Gays (Tarcher, $9.95). This well-edited speech scorns homos for trading their futures—and civil rights—for crystal meth and unsafe sex.

WEAR

new Divabetic duds, all you diabetic divas (many with HIV and hep C), to show off your fine stuff. Slip into this mischievous tee at cafepress.com/divabetic.

SAIL

on the popular-with-straight-HIVers Positive Connections cruise. Spend October 15–21 floating from Florida to the Bahamas with friends, family and a boatload of pozzies. Book by August 1 at positiveconnections.org/cruise.htm.

SING

with Elton John at his July 4 Philadelphia Freedom Concert and Ball, an AIDS gala aiming to raise $2 million. Bryan Adams, Patti LaBelle and original honky cat, Walter Cronkite, are also lined up. The concert is free. Snag VIP seats at phillyfreedom.net. —Emmy Favilla
