Paris When It Sizzled

October 1, 2003

Resistant HIV floods Europe! Superinfections sighted! Fat returns to lipo faces! This year’s biggest HIV confab, sponsored by the International AIDS Society in Paris in July, served up all the best (and worst) in treatment news, garnished with a protest put down by the gendarmes and the promise of two revolutionary new drug classes. Look for reports from the City of Light in next month’s POZ Partner—and hold onto your chapeau.
