HIV-Positive Penn. Woman Wins Wrongful Eviction Case

October 8, 2010

A client of the AIDS Law Project of Pennsylvania (ALPP) won over $63,000 in damages and penalties for being wrongfully evicted from Canal Side Care Manor, LLC, a personal care home, after disclosing she was HIV positive, according to an ALPP statement. In addition to the monetary award, the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission instructed Canal Side to stop all illegal discriminatory practices and to establish anti-discrimination policies relating to HIV/AIDS.
