Say What?

September 1, 2000

“It would be better to spend money on the poor and immigrants, because homosexuals are rich, from rich families. They do nothing other than travel throughout the world, flaunting their sickness.”

—Catholic priest Staislaw Heymo on the scheduling conflict of the 200,000 Poles who planned a Vatican pilgrimage the same weekend as gay-fest World Pride Roma. The New York Times, 6.3.00
