Sign Of The Times

February 1, 2003 By Josh Sparber

Sticking it to AIDS stigma on World AIDS Day, UNAIDS unveiled its yearlong “Live and Let Live” World AIDS Campaign to make the world a safer place for HIVers. According to Andrew Doupe, the coordinator, public health workers around the globe chose AIDSphobia as the top target: “Stigma and discrimination are major obstacles to effective prevention and care.” And the poster’s cool, too.
