

Toys 'R' Us

April 1, 2003 By Suzy Martin

Budgets for prophylactics may go limp as federal funds shoot into abstinence-only initiatives, but the makers of the Inspiral rubber—called Condomtoy for its friction-enhancing spiral tip that promises to turn a barrier into a sex toy—have pledged to donate a free supply to programs that get shafted by the War on Condoms. This toy could have both right-wingers and barebackers begging to play!
