Vatican to Host International Conference on Its Condom Policy

February 10, 2011

The Vatican has announced it will host an international conference explaining the church's position concerning condoms as a way to prevent HIV transmission, The Associated Press reports. The conference will take place May 28, and invitations have been sent to UNAIDS as well as other leaders and researchers among the HIV community. The Vatican's Pontifical Council for Health Care Workers also said it is working on guidelines for Catholic doctors, nurses and others involved in care for those living with HIV/AIDS.
