

Third Adult Performer With HIV Reported, AHF Claims Another

September 13, 2013

Following the recent diagnoses of adult performers Cameron Bay and Rod Daily, a third anonymous performer has tested HIV positive, which has resulted in a moratorium on production, AVN reports. “Performer 3” does not appear to have contracted the virus while performing in adult films, according to a statement by the Free Speech Coalition, a porn industry trade association. In addition, the AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF) claims that a male adult performer told the group he recently tested HIV positive, which would bring the total of recent diagnoses in the porn industry to four, the Los Angeles Times reports. AHF would not give the Los Angeles Times any further details about the fourth person.
