Phoenix City Council Candidate Austin Head Is HIV Positive

May 13, 2013

Austin Head, an HIV-positive gay man, is running for a seat on the Phoenix City Council, according to his website. The Arizona entertainer, DJ and musician first gained wider attention for his participation in the documentary Positive Youth, which aired on Logo. However, it was his 2012 experience of being physically assaulted, which resulted in several fractures of his facial bones, that inspired him to run for public office.
