

N.J. Gov. Chris Christie Gives $19.5M in HIV/AIDS Funding

October 31, 2012

Both nonprofit and government agencies will get about $19.5 million from New Jersey Governor Chris Christie, Planet Princeton reports. More than $11 million goes to HIV counseling, testing and education. More than $8 million is for medical care and social services, including housing. The Hyacinth AIDS Foundation gets more than $2 million. Seven nonprofits in the Mercer County area will get a combined total of about $2 million.
