

Everyday – January/February 2025

These dates represent milestones in the HIV epidemic. Visit poz.com/aidsiseveryday to learn more about the history of HIV and AIDS.

January 6, 2025 By Jennifer Morton

JANUARY

15 – United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan announces the launch of the Global Media AIDS Initiative, which aims to get media organizations to expand public knowledge and understanding about HIV and AIDS. (2004)

24 – Model and jewelry designer Tina chow dies of AIDS-related complications at age 41. Chow spoke publicly about living with HIV and worked with many AIDS organizations, including Project Angel Food in Los Angeles. (1992)

Tina Chow

FEBRUARY

3 – Princess Diana visits the pediatric AIDS unit at Harlem Hospital in New York City. (1989)

Margaret Heagarty, MD, and Princess DianaYouTube

7 – National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day

13 - AIDS Healthcare Foundation launches International Condom Day to remind people that wearing a condom can prevent pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections, including HIV. (2009)

iStock

28 – HIV is Not a Crime Awareness Day

iStock