

Everyday – October/November 2024

These dates represent milestones in the HIV epidemic. Visit poz.com/aidsiseveryday to learn more about the history of HIV and AIDS.

September 23, 2024 By Jennifer Morton

OCTOBER

12 – U2’s Bono and Oprah Winfrey go on a shopping spree on Chicago’s Magnificent Mile to promote the launch of (Product) Red, which supports The Global Fund. (2006)

Bono and Oprah Winfrey Instagram/RED

15 - National Latinx HIV/AIDS Awareness Day

19 - Pop star Miley Cyrus becomes the latest celebrity spokesperson for MAC Cosmetics' Viva Glam makeup line, which raises money to help people living with HIV. (2014)

Miley Cyrus' MAC Cosmetics' Viva Glam adMAC Cosmetics

NOVEMBER

16 - Nan Goldin organizes Witnesses: Against Our Vanishing, an exhibition at Artists Space of New York artists responding to the AIDS crisis. (1989)

Nan Goldin YouTube/PBS NewsHour

23 - The film version of Rent, the award-winning musical about bohemians struggling with life, love and AIDS in New York City's East Village neighborhood, opens in the United States. (2005)

27 - The United Nations announces that, for the first time, about half of adults living with HIV worldwide are women. (2002)

