Fiji Lifts HIV Travel Ban

September 2, 2011

Fiji has lifted its restrictions on entry, stay or residence based on HIV status, according to a UNAIDS statement. The lifting of the HIV travel ban was announced in South Korea at the 10th International Congress of AIDS in Asia and the Pacific by the president of Fiji. UNAIDS still counts 47 countries, territories and areas that continue to impose some form of restriction on the entry, stay and residence of people living with HIV.
