Grant Colfax to Join HIV/AIDS, TB Program at PATH

January 15, 2014

Effective January 24, Grant Colfax, MD, will lead the HIV/AIDS and tuberculosis program at PATH (Program for Appropriate Technology in Health), according to a PATH statement. The Seattle–based international nonprofit works on vaccines, drugs, diagnostic tests, medical devices and innovations in service for developing countries. He will work from its office in South San Francisco and report to Steve Davis, president and CEO of PATH. Most recently, Colfax was the director of the White House Office of National AIDS Policy. Previously, he oversaw HIV prevention at the San Francisco Department of Public Health.
