BMS Joins Online Portal HarborPath

October 10, 2013

Bristol-Myers Squibb (BMS) is now a participating company in HarborPath, which provides a single point of access to HIV/AIDS medications through patient assistance programs via an online portal, according to a HarborPath statement. Merck and ViiV Healthcare joined HarborPath in 2012. Gilead Sciences joined earlier this year. The nonprofit organization delivers donated meds at no cost to qualified individuals through a mail-order pharmacy.
