Warrior Princess: Fighting for Life With Courage and Hope (InterVarsity Press, $22)
Growing up in Africa, Princess Kasune Zulu watched her parents and sister die of AIDS-related illness. When she learned she, too, was HIV positive, Zulu chose to be a victor—not a victim. Celebrate her strength by reading her story.

Love Won't Let Me Be Silent (Baker and Taylor Publishing, $17.95)
In this stirring collection of articles, short stories and romantic poetry, author and staunch AIDS advocate Terry Angel Mason shares his often wrenching experiences as an openly gay, HIV-positive black man.

Face to Face: Children of the AIDS Crisis in Africa (Hope Publishing House, $39.95)
This collection of stories and photos by Karen Ande and Ruthann Richer brings you face to face with children struggling to grow up amid poverty and HIV/AIDS in Africa. A picture may be worth a thousand words, but these will leave you speechless.
