New Roles for Jessica Whitbread, Tereisa Njoki Otieno at ICW

April 21, 2014

The International Community of Women Living with HIV (ICW) has made two changes to its global team leadership, according to an ICW statement.

Jessica Whitbread of Canada has stepped down as chair of the ICW International Steering Committee (ISC) to become the ICW interim global director.

Teresia Njoki Otieno of Kenya was selected by the ISC to replace Whitbread as the ICW global chair. Other staff for the global team will be hired.
