Hands Up for World AIDS Day!

November 14, 2016 By Trent Straube

As World AIDS Day approaches on December 1, you can participate in an interactive campaign from UNAIDS titled “Hands Up for #HIVprevention.” What do you think will help increase HIV prevention? Write the answer on the palm of your hand, photograph it and upload it on the UNAIDS Facebook page (you can also post a short video message). And that’s only one way you can lend a hand to the cause!
