OraQuick In-Home HIV Test Available in Stores Nationwide

October 9, 2012

The first rapid in-home HIV test in the United States is now available at retailers nationwide and online, according to a statement by the manufacturer OraSure Technologies. The OraQuick In-Home HIV Test costs $39.99 on the OraQuick website. The single-use test is administered with an oral swab and gives results in 20 to 40 minutes. The Food and Drug Administration approved the test in July.
