

Oregon Man Denied Access to Homegrown Medical Marijuana

March 8, 2011

Local officials have denied an Oregon man with a medical marijuana card access to his homegrown marijuana, the Mail Tribune reports. Joshua Brewer, 22, is currently appealing a 60-day sentence in jail for manufacture and possession of marijuana. He has prescriptions from four different doctors because of his chronic pain. The Jackson County Community Justice Department doesn't recognize marijuana as a legal medication.
