Third HIV Shutdown of Adult Film Industry in 2013

December 12, 2013

Another adult film performer has tested HIV positive this year, prompting the third shutdown of the industry in 2013, the Los Angeles Times reports. The name and gender of the performer have not been released. The Free Speech Coalition, a porn industry trade group, is working to identify anyone who had sex with the performer. The organization called for the moratorium on filming, which started December 6. There is nothing to suggest this case is connected to the previous shutdowns in August and September.
