POZ.com

POZ.com offers members of the HIV community opportunities to come together to share their stories, experiences and expertise.

September 1, 2019

Launched in 1996, POZ.com provides an archive of every issue of POZ magazine. The site also posts daily national and international HIV/AIDS news, treatment updates and special reports on a wide variety of cultural, social, political and medical topics. POZ.com also offers members of the HIV community opportunities to come together to share their stories, experiences and expertise through a variety of web and social media platforms.

POZ News

Up-to-date information on an array of topics related to HIV

POZ Blogs

Insights from a diverse group of bloggers on a variety of issues

POZ Stories

The real-life stories of people living with and affected by HIV/AIDS

POZ Archive

Access to every print issue from the past 25 years

POZ Personals

The premier online dating service for people living with HIV

POZ Forums

A round-the-clock discussion area for people concerned about HIV/AIDS

Basics

Essential information about HIV testing, transmission, prevention, treatment and more

Conference Coverage

The latest HIV-related news and highlights from conferences around the world

Health Services Directory

A comprehensive and searchable guide to health care and services for people with HIV

Calendar

A listing of upcoming events relevant to the HIV community

© 2026 Smart + Strong All Rights Reserved.