Queerocracy Hosts Its First Community Fundraising Challenge

March 28, 2013

Queerocracy, a New York City–based grassroots social justice group, has issued its first Community Fundraising Challenge, according to a Queerocracy statement. Queer bars and parties are invited to hold events from March 15 to May 31 that benefit the group and raise HIV/AIDS awareness in local communities. Attendees will have the chance to vote on one of the events to receive the Building Community Through Nightlife Award.
