HIV, Hep Concerns After Arrest of Fake Dentist in Texas

February 6, 2013

A Texas woman has been arrested for allegedly practicing dentistry without a license, FOX 26 reports. Police claim 79-year-old Mary Diaz performed illegal dental services from an office in Houston. Harris County prosecutors are asking local residents if they received services from the woman. Local licensed dentists have raised concerns about the risk of HIV and hepatitis C transmissions in unlicensed settings.
