CASTING CALL: Let’s Stop HIV Together might be looking for YOU!

May 14, 2021 By Shawn Decker

Are you ready for your close-up? Great! Let’s Stop HIV Together is gearing up for their next photoshoot, and you may be just who they are looking for. If you meet any of the requirements below, then follow this link for a questionnaire and one of the friendly folks behind the campaign will follow up with you. (Spanish-speaking link available here!)

Good luck! And if you don’t meet any of the requirements, please consider sharing this on your social networks.

Positively Yours,
Shawn

LET’S STOP HIV TOGETHER Submission Requirements:

We are only looking to cast people who are local to the Atlanta and Washington D.C. metro areas. This is due to COVID-19 safety protocols to minimize travel. We’re especially looking to increase representation from the following groups:

- Transgender women aged 18-45, especially Black and Latina women
- People in recovery from injection drug use (of any race/ethnicity or age
- Black cisgender women aged 18-45, including active PrEP users
- Non-binary/gender-queer/gender-fluid people aged 18-45
- Partners, friends, and adult children in the same household as people in groups listed above

Deadline for Submissions: May 20
