C’ville Locals: Orzo Benefit Dinner on Monday Sept 10

August 31, 2012 By Shawn Decker

For those who live in the Charlottesville area, our good friends at Orzo are once again hosting a benefit dinner that helps benefit people living with HIV. Good food for a good cause! All of the pertinent details are listed below, act fast as there is limited seating and this event always sells out.

I love my hometown.

Positively Yours,
Shawn

Benefit Dinner for the UVA Ryan White Program
Monday, September 10, 2012

Orzo Restaurant is hosting a benefit for the UVA Ryan White Program (HIV Clinic). The benefit dinner and silent auction will raise money for the HIV Family Camp at Camp Holiday Trails and gas cards for patients traveling to the clinic.

The event will begin at 5:30 p.m. with hors d’oeuvres and wine reception. At 6:30 p.m., guests will be seated for a three-course, Italian-style dinner.

Tickets are $40/adult and $20/child (gratuity and tax included). Orzo will donate half of the money raised from ticket sales to the Ryan White Program.

Tickets will be available at the door; cash and checks will be accepted. If you would like to support the benefit but will be unable to join us, the requested donation is $40.

Three-Course Dinner Menu

- Orzo’s Caesar: Hearts of Romaine, Parmigiano Reggiano, Garlic Croutons
- Traditional Lasagna Al Forno (vegetarian lasagna available upon request)
- Italian Citrus Cake: Orange Juice and Cointreau Reduction, Fresh Whipped Cream
