

Do you think I look hot?...well, tell Medicare!

Medicare and Medicaid as trying to verify if lipoatrophy (aka AIDS wasting) treatments should be covered under their plan, just like breast replacement after chemotherapy for cancer. If you yourself have suffered from low self-esteem, lost a significant over from your AIDS wasting, fired from a job (this is illegal but still could happen,) or felt like a walking skeleton with AIDS writing all over you?re wrinkly face, or never wanted to leave you house out of pure shame. Are you a friend or family member of Dave and you want to express how he feels like himself again after the treatment, walking tall with his head up high. Possibly, you want to have a date with Dave, or you just think he?s hot. Whatever the reason, please go to the Medicare and Medicaid website and click the orange box marked ?COMMENT? on the top right. Submissions are until February 16, 2009 and, as David Evans so eloquently wrote in AIDSmeds.com, ?comments should make the case that the treatment is reconstructive, rather than cosmetic, and elaborate on the mental and physical toll that facial wasting can have on a person.? Please don?t used by name, and basically tone it down, you?re dealing with federal government, I was just being silly, seriously. NOW DO IT!

WOULD YOU BE SCARED OF THIS GUY?

WOULD YOU LEAVE THE HOUSE IF YOU LOOKS LIKE THIS GUY?

WOULD YOU FIRED THIS GUY?

WOULD YOU FEEL LIKE AN AIDS BILLBOARD IF YOU WERE THIS GUY?

WOULD YOU APPROACH THIS GUY FOR A DATE?
