Looking for a movie night this weekend? Now you have three options! NMAC is happy to support the Virtual HIV Film Festival to mark 40 years of the Denver Principles.

Dates and Times:

June 9, 10, and 11

6:30 pm to 9:15 pm ET

Film Selection:

1. Friday, June 9, 2023: "Dallas Buyers Club" - Based on a true story, this gripping drama follows an electrician diagnosed with HIV who challenges the medical establishment and fights for access to life-saving medications. Hosted by the National Minority AIDS Council (NMAC).

2. Saturday, June 10, 2023: “The Normal Heart” - A powerful drama that depicts the early days of the AIDS crisis in New York City, as seen through the eyes of a writer and activist determined to raise awareness and fight for justice. Hosted by the Latino AIDS Commission.

3. Sunday, June 11, 2023: “Philadelphia” - Starring Tom Hanks and Denzel Washington, Philadelphia explores the personal and professional struggles faced by a man living with HIV as he battles against discrimination and fights for justice. Co-hosted by THRIVE SS, The Reunion Project, and The Well Project.
