Hey y’all!

A short while back, I wrote a blog post about Vaughn Ripley’s attempt to be the first person living with HIV and hemophilia to grace the cover of Men’s Health. He was leading the contest until very recently, and needs every vote coming down the home stretch to win.

Remember- you can vote once daily! The voting period ends soon. Let’s get Vaughn through to the next phase so he can show just how strong our community is.

Positively Yours,
Shawn
