Hear My Tori Amos Remix

April 10, 2009 By Shawn Decker

I've gotten back into writing some music as of late, and here's something I did for the Subculture Shock compilation disc for the Spring fund drive.

If you're not familiar, Subculture Shock is a radio show that plays underground alternative music, and they started playing my music back in 1999 after I moved to Charlottesville... I remember what a thrill it was to hear one of my songs on the radio.

Here's the song I gave them. It's a remix of a Tori Amos song, "Raspberry Swirl", that Synthetic Division- my synthpop duo- first covered a couple of years ago. (You can buy the cover on iTunes). You can listen to the remix here.

Enjoy! And here's the original Tori song. Which is about a lesbian love affair. Being lipsynched by Divinette, the drag queen.

I Am Not Your Senorita,
Shawn
